German toward an endeavor to secure a Russian empire in the near east, there can be no drawing back, but the allies hope that with a vigorous offensive both on the east and the west they will be able to prevent the sending of any large reinforcements to Field Marshal von Hindenburg.

The French, in both the Champagne and Artois regions of France, are conducting their offensive but not on the scale of the recent attacks. The British, after their success in repelling the big German attack, are preparing for another move but at what point only the commanding generals know. Now that they have decided it is believed here that the British and French on the western line will give the Germans no rest.

It is much the same on the eastern front. The Austro-Germans having brought their offensive to an end, except in the region of Dobruja, the Russians have recuperated wonderfully and are striking back. The Germans claim another success west of Dobruja but they are still fighting to the west of Hlobock. They also announce that Russian counter-attacks have been repulsed south of the Dniester river in Volhynia and in Galicia.

Russ Win Along Stript.

The Russians seemingly have entirely regained the initiative, especially in Galicia. Here it is reported from Petrograd that the Russians have won a victory on the river Stript. The territory on which this battle was fought marks the extreme left of the Russian battle line. The Russian offensive on this front started several weeks ago when successes were won at Darnow and Trembowla. Austro-German reinforcements were rushed up and hard and incessant fighting has taken place since. General Count von Bothmer commands the Austro-Germans in this sector and the German official report of today says that the position of the "German troops" with him is unchanged.

HAL BOY WINS BIG KENTUCKY CONTEST

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 12.—Hal Boy, the Hal, a Lexington gelding owned by S. A. Fletcher of Indiana, defeated Judge Ormonde, the Ormonde-Rogers gelding of Barton, in the Kentucky contest at the Grand Circuit track today. Hal, a 3-year-old gelding, won the race at 5-2 odds, while C. A. Valentine of Columbus, Ohio, was credited with putting in the money for the side bet on Judge Ormonde.

The race was one of the most exciting ever witnessed at a Lexington track. The first heat was won by Hal Boy, who won by a length but in the second heat he was only a head in front after cutting Judge Ormonde to the eighth post. In the third Judge Ormonde won in a finish so close only the judges could separate them. In the fourth and deciding heat, Hal Boy, after a grueling drive in which the whip was used freely, led by a head at the wire. Hal Boy lowered his own record in the second heat by three-quarters of a second. The veteran driver "Pop" Geers, secured three straight heat victories today.

SERGT. BLADE WINS MARINE CORPS MATCH

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 12.—Sergeant E. J. Blade, company G, First Infantry, National Guard of Minnesota, won the marine corps rifle match at the National Rifle association matches here today, making 197 points out of a possible 200. The previous best record for this match was held by 193. First Sergeant E. S. Schofield, Fifth Infantry, Massachusetts National Guard, was second with 182.

Sergeant F. H. Kean, a member of Schofield's company took third place in this match with 174. Corporal J. P. Coppedge, United States marine corps, earlier in the day won the members' match for the individual championship of the national association, making a perfect score of 50. These were the only two matches concluded today.

The first stage of the marine corps rifle match was shot yesterday at 600 yards. Today the range was 1,000 yards, each competitor firing 20 shots with any make of rifle, as on yesterday. The chief event scheduled for tomorrow is the president's match for the individual military championship of the United States.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

County fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more sniffling, hacking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.—Adv.

Colds Do Not Leave Willingly.

Because a cold is stubborn is no reason why you should be. Instead of "wearing" it out, get sure relief by taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Dangerous bronchitis and lung ailments often follow a cold which has been neglected at the beginning. As your body faithfully battles those cold germs, no better aid can be given than the use of this remedy. It has been tested by old and young. Get a bottle today. 50c and $1.00.—Adv.

EXCITING SECOND INNING PLAY IN THE FIRST GAME OF THE BIG SERIES

LEWIS CAUGHT BETWEEN SECOND AND THIRD

Lewis caught between second and third in the second inning. The picture shows an exciting play in the second inning of the first world's series game at Philadelphia Friday. Lewis singled to left and on Gardner's single went to second. Gardner was out at first. Barry sent a grounder to Alexander, who threw to Stock, and the latter relaying to Bancroft, put out Lewis near second. The bottom to top the players are Stock, Lewis, Alexander, Bancroft and Niehoff.

and then fanned. Chalmers third strike out in four outs. Lewis hit three times, but the cold run put the Boston rooters in good humor and they called to Gardner to send Lewis home. Gardner, however, raised a fly to Paskert and Barry was thrown out by Chalmers.

As the seventh inning began the brass band in the grandstand played "The Star Spangled Banner." The 41,000 people in the stands uncovered their heads as did also the players and umpires. Burns was an easy out. Scott to Hobbittel. Chalmers was cheered as he dropped a Texas leaguer into short center field. A double play here killed whatever chances the Phillies had of scoring. Stock grounded to Scott, who threw to Barry, forcing Chalmers to Barry in trying to make the double play. Three low to Hobbittel and the ball went between "Hobby" and the grandstand. Stock kept on running to second. Hobbittel getting the ball on the rebound from the concrete stand shot it to Barry ahead of the Philadelphia runner, completing the double.

Boston's seventh inning was a procession. Both Cady and Shore struck out and Hobbittel was retired on a grounder to Scott. The National leaguers made a strong bid to tie the score in the eighth after two were out. Bancroft flied to Lewis and Paskert sent up a high fly to Gardner. Cravath hit a terrific drive to center field. The

All Breaks Go to Red Sox Who Win Again

Hobbittel came in for a great round of applause. He found his batting eye early in the game and accumulated three hits and scored one of the two runs of the day for the victors. Cady was the only other member of the team to secure more than one hit. Lewis added another to his string and still leads the club with seven hits in fourteen times at bat, giving him a batting average of .500. Barry is second with five hits in fifteen times at bat, while Speaker and Hooper are tied for third place with four hits each. Among the National leaguers, Luderus, as the result of his three safe drives today, is in the lead with a total of five hits in fourteen trips to the plate. Bancroft still holds second place with three hits, although he did not increase his total today. Burns, Cravath and Stock are grouped with two hits each. The Red Sox as a team have made seven runs and thirty-two hits and the Phillies six runs and eighteen hits in the four games of the series.

The Game in Detail.

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—Pitcher Shore, who lost his battle with Alexander in Philadelphia last Friday, was loudly cheered as he took the mound to open the game. He served up a ball to Stock, lead off man for Philadelphia. Then shot over two strikes and after another ball had been called, Stock ripped a hit down the left field foul line.

Duffy Lewis by hard sprinting fielded the ball quickly and made a fine throw to Scott, nipping the Philadelphia runner at second. Shore gave Bancroft four bad ones. With two balls and two strikes on Paskert, Bancroft stole second. Cady made a good throw to Barry and the runner was clearly out but in the mixup at the bag Barry dropped the ball and Bancroft was safe.

Paskert struck out and Shore completely fooled "Gavy" Cravath, who also fanned. Chalmers then made his debut as a world's series pitcher and started out in fine style. He made short work of Hooper, first up for the Red Sox, striking out on five pitched balls. He did even better on Scott, fanning him on four offerings.

This Speaker, however, was rewarded with a base on balls but was out trying to steal, retiring the side. Luderus singled to right field in the second inning. He went to second on Whitte's sacrifice. Hobbittel to Barry. Niehoff sent up a high foul to Cady.

Shore gave Burns a base on four straight balls. Chalmers struck out leaving the two runners on the bags. Hobbittel in Boston's half of the second took the limit on balls and strikes.

the bases. The result was that the ball was not dropped, as Hobbittel indicated that Chalmers was on and on the pitcher's side when he apparently made a motion to throw to first. Evans and both runners bank.

Scrapping Pitcher Hooper. Shore had shown a surprise and was out. Stock in the first inning. He had been in the lead and scored a run. He was in the lead and scored a run. He was in the lead and scored a run.

provided abundant opportunities for striking scenic effects, and it is doubtful if the colorful activities of the last past have ever been transferred to the stage with more fidelity.

MAJESTIC.
It is indeed a question if a more enthralling drama has ever been presented either on the spoken or silent stage than the William Fox production, "The Song of Hate," which closes a two days' engagement at the Majestic today. Betty Nanssen, the internationally famous actress, as "La Tosca," presiding all the scenes of the difficult role places her in a class with Sara Bernhardt. Arthur Hoops, as the Satyr-like Baron Scarpia, is an actor of great power and extraordinary ability. Dorothy Bernard, beautiful and dainty, is a real surprise; she has dramatic poise which preordains stardom.

"The Song of Hate" is based on a far west town, where the only amusement of the town is to visit the dance hall, where faro, roulette, poker and other games of chance are in full swing every evening.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Political equality for the women of Ireland and after the war is over, is the confident belief of Lady Aberdeen, who, with her husband, the Marquis of Aberdeen, former viceroy of Ireland, is now in this city preparatory to starting on a lecture tour of the country. Lord Aberdeen echoes his wife's sentiments.

This is the twenty-fourth visit of Lady Aberdeen to this country and the twelfth for her distinguished husband, who previous to his position as viceroy of Ireland, was governor-general of Canada.

"A great change has come over the people of the United Kingdom regarding political equality for women," said Lady Aberdeen. "The women identified with the so-called heroic or militant party are now making every effort to aid their country in time of stress. This has caused a marked change in the people who once opposed them. Those who were most unyielding in their opposition are now the warmest supporters of our principles."

Support for women is bound to come. It will come, both in England and in America. I trust it will pass triumphantly at all your state elections.
